

United Steelworkers Local 12-591's Women of Steel Committee is currently doing a workwear donation drive for Rosie's Closet.

In an effort to support female apprentices in skilled trades occupations, WWIT - Washington Women In Trades together with ANEW - Apprenticeship and Non-Traditional Employment for Women, offer a women's work clothes program, affectionately known as, Rosie's Closet. Rosie's Closet collects work clothing for women who are new to the workplace, starting over, or simply in need.

Welcomed donations include:

- LIGHTLY USED CONSTRUCTION RELATED clothing ONLY.
- Jeans, coveralls, long shirts, t-shirts, vests, jackets, hats, boots, rain gear, gloves, toolbelts, hard hats, etc.

Rosie's Closet also accepts new clothing as well as Amazon purchases & gift cards.

Link to Amazon
Wishlist:

Link to give a
cash donation:

There will be a donation bin in the HF Sinclair Annex to drop off items, or you can contact Michelle Gitts to arrange pick up.

Michelle.Gitts@Gmail.com
(360) 223-8901

